

Shan Padda is a successful professional who has dedicated himself to community participation and development with concentration on race relations, community outreach, and multicultural programs. He was a candidate representing the major Political Party for the Provincial Party during the provincial election of 1995 & 1999 and held the various elected offices in the Political Party hierarchy for a number of years and participated in many election campaigns over the years.

He is a member of the Law Society of Upper Canada and practices Canadian immigration law. As an immigration lawyer he processes refugee claims, prepares applications for immigration to Canada under family class, skill workers, business class, and entrepreneur categories.

He makes effective representations before detention hearings, judicial review applications, and appeal processes for rejected cases before the appeal division of the IRB. He also makes very effective representations for humanitarian and compassionate applications, student visas and work permit applications.

Guru Kashi Immigration & Education Consultants also have exclusive MOU with CCNB Community College in New Brunswick and many other education institutions for International Student recruitments etc.

Coupled with his immigration expertise he is able to close residential and commercial real estate transactions including difficult to attain funding for refugee claimants.

He has worked with Waldman & Associates one of the leading immigration law firms in Canada. For the past twenty years Mr. Padda was employed by Regional Municipal Government and multinational and Canadian corporations and work in the field of International Trade. In recognition of his outstanding service to the community

Mr. Padda received the Governor General Commemorative Medal for the 125 Anniversary of Canada 1993. He was honored with the Queen 50th Golden jubilee medal from the Governor General of Canada (2002).

He is a certified member of the National Purchasing Association of Canada and holds a C.P.P. designation. He is a member of Ontario Municipal Management Institute and has earned CMMII designation.

Mr. Padda has experience, expertise and a background in logistics management, staffing and recruitments, and Marketing and Public relations.