

Mr. Tunde Fawehinmi is a seasoned aviator. He holds a second class (upper division) degree in Geography and Regional Planning from University of Benin, Benin City, Nigeria.

He started his career with British Airways in 1992 and later joined Virgin Atlantic Airways as Airport Duty Manager. While working with Virgin Atlantic Airways, he led the start-up team that set-up the flight operations in Port Harcourt Airport and thereafter managed in 2003. He joined Qatar Airways in 2006 and set-up its operations at the Lagos Airport before moving to Guaranty Trust Bank Plc (GTBank) in 2007 where he continued to take charge of business aviation until he voluntarily left in 2019.

He is an alumnus of Lagos Business School Executive Program - Strategic Business Leadership Program. He has also attended various management training over the years.

Mr. Fawehinmi is the founder and CEO of TYET Global Resources, an aviation consulting firm providing services in aircraft sales, acquisition and management.